

Did you know?

Banksia woodland continues to be lost from the Swan Coastal Plain due to the clearing of land for urban development. Have you ever thought about where all of the animals that once lived in these woodlands go once their homes have been destroyed?